

Instruction Manual

Thank you for choosing our tool box. For your safety, our box is specially designed to preventing accidental drops of the drawers. Please see the operation attentions before getting started.

- Top tray and drawers are at same size, so they can switch positions at will. You can take out the top tray by pushing down its front side.
- Always make sure the drawers and locking holders are well positioned back to lock before closing the top lid.