

Intermediate Shaft (IMS) Bearing Kit - for Porsche

The 8102 has been developed specifically for the quick and safe removal and replacement of the Porsche IMS (Intermediate Shaft) bearing on the M96 and M97 engines fitted to all water cooled 911, Boxster and Cayman models from 1999 through to 2008. Complete with the camshaft and crankshaft timing tools.

Additional Information

- Porsche Applications: 911, Boxster, Cayman (1999 - 2008).
- Engine code applications include: M96 and M97.
- Kit includes camshaft and crankshaft locking tools for both early and late engines.
- 2 methods for removal of the bearing are provided. Bearing installation as per OEM instruction.
- Made in Sheffield. IMPORTANT: ensure the force screw is well lubricated with molybdenum disulphide grease before use.

<http://lasertools.co.uk/product/8102>

